Don’t Drown!
How to Transition Swimmingly From Resident to Faculty in Academic Emergency Medicine
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Role</th>
<th>Institution</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Simiao Li-Sauerwine, MD MS</td>
<td>Assist Prof, APD</td>
<td>The Ohio State University</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Matthew Klein, MD MPH</td>
<td>Med Ed Fellow, Interim APD</td>
<td>Northwestern Medicine</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Andrew Ketterer, MD MA</td>
<td>Instructor, APD</td>
<td>Beth Israel Deaconess Medical</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>P. Logan Weygandt, MD MPH</td>
<td>Assist Prof, APD</td>
<td>Johns Hopkins Medicine</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abra Fant, MD MS</td>
<td>Assist Prof, APD</td>
<td>Northwestern Medicine</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Who we are...
Objectives

• List common aphorisms of advice for new attendings

• Identify strategies for interpreting that advice
Common Aphorisms

• Academic
• Clinical
• General
Common Aphorisms

✓ Academic
  • Clinical
  • General
Academic Aphorism #1

“You work for your chair”
Academic Aphorism #2

“Find a sponsor/mentor and network”
Academic Aphorism #3

“Find your niche”
Common Aphorisms

✓ Academic ✓ Clinical
• General
Clinical Aphorism #1

“Do what helps you sleep at night”
“Learn everyone’s name”
Clinical Aphorism #3

“Trust but verify”
Common Aphorisms

✓ Academic ✓ Clinical
✓ General
General Aphorism #1

“Establish your brand”
General Aphorism #2

“Say yes”
General Aphorism #3

“Love your job”
Questions?
Thank you!